"The Day-Breakers"—Arna Bontemps
We are not come to wage a strife
With swords upon this hill
It is not wise to waste the life against a stubborn will.
Yet would we die as some have done,
Beating a way for the rising sun.

FACULTY

Principal, Mr. Rice, Leads Faculty and Students Through New Year at Geyer

Mr. Rice has had much added to his already busy schedule with the increase in both student and faculty population. As Geyerite leader he oversees the programs, planning, problems, and daily school activities. On the left we see him diligently working in his office.

Dr. Null Leaves; Geyerites Welcome Mr. Kurtz

In the picture above Dr. Null finishes his work at Geyer before he assumes his new position with the Program Planning and Budget System. On the right is Mr. Kurtz, our new assistant principal. He came to Geyer in February and has rapidly acquainted himself with students and faculty.

Lou Geller

Donna Green

Ron Smith

Counselors Guide Busy Geyerites

Throughout the school year Mr. Geller, left, and Mr. Smith, right, try to solve many student problems that come their way.

Donna Green, girls' guidance counselor, takes time out of her busy schedule for a picture.

Assistants Help Geyer Run Smoothly

Above we see Mrs. Mulligan working while she oversees the studyhall. On the right we see Mrs. Myers filing magazines in the Media Center workroom. She assists Mr. Lewendowski.

Staff Performs Many Duties Around Geyer

On the left we see Mrs. Margaret Townsend, seated, and Mrs. Mildred Nading, standing, as they go over their busy schedule. On the right is our school nurse, Mrs. Lucille Ward Below, Mrs. Margaret Phillips and Johnnie Allen check the attendance files.

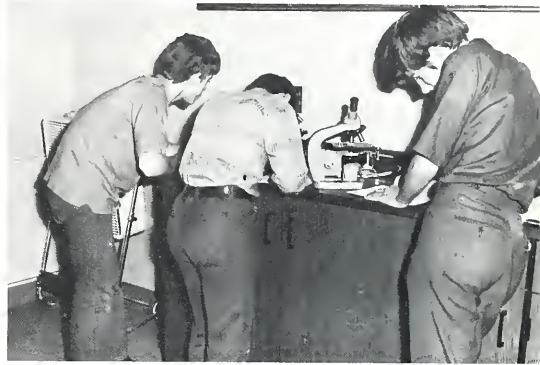

Maintenance Crew Manages Building For Geyerites

At left the boys' gym class does some warm-up exercises before starting their class. Below members of the girls' gym class practice rhythmic to music. These are often worked into dance routines.

Dave Cook and Dan Murad spend part of their time working in the A-V room. Part of their duties include delivering and collecting equipment and keeping it in good working order.

In the picture above Miss Kay Greener is teaching some of her oral training students. At right we see Mrs. Joy Helm's art class experiment with paints. Below, ninth graders get a head start on their homework in Mrs. Mulligan's study hall.

"Adolescence"

Many times it seems I'm surrounded by blind alleys.
It seems all the seeing-eye dogs have rabies.
And the walls are closing in on me.
What bothers me, though is that I don't try to run.

FACES

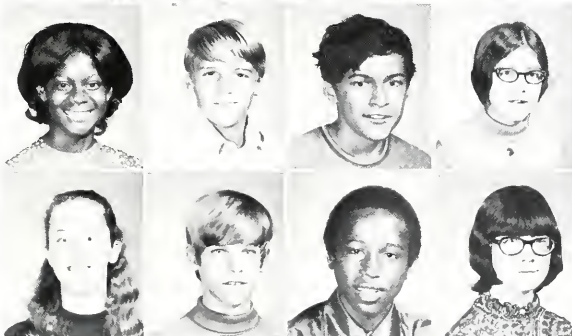

Above we see Miss Karen Hazlelett's developmental reading class studying and learning new skills. One of the primary purposes of this class is to develop the skill of comprehension in learning. This should transfer to the other classes that a student takes.
